

Seaside, Fla. (Jan 14, 2010) - David Allen of the BBC conducted a 3 stage interview with Jon Ervin, Director of Public Relations and Marketing for Cottage Rental Agency, Seaside. Mr. Allen, among other ventures, chairs a popular show on BBC radio airing every Saturday. His tradition stands to have a “postcard from across the pond” featuring a great place to visit. The majority of dialog was centered on getting to know the undiscovered “other” Florida, and how lovely it is. The new airport, Beaches of South Walton, the Truman Show, YOLO, the weather, lifestyle, beauty, recreation, Seaside vacation rentals, real estate and much more was shared with the listeners in the U.K.
